

I Understand..

I understand that summer program tuition is non-refundable unless the Arts Council cancels the class for any reason. I understand that improper language or behavior could mean dismissal from the program and that no refund will be issued for any remaining time. Classes end promptly at the time listed. The Arts Council requires that a child under the age of 12 be picked up from the class room and that a fee of $1 will be charged for every minute over 10 minutes pass the scheduled end time. For children over the age of 12, the Arts Councils does not take responsibility for the child once class is over; please make arrangements accordingly.
